Key Vocabulary

nutrients, molar, incisor, canine, pre-molar, herbivores, carnivore, food chain, producer, predator, prey, food group, proteins, fats, fruit and vegetables, carbohydrates, dairy, nutrition, balanced diet

Lower Key Stage 2

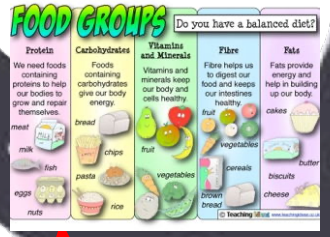
Science – Why do animals have different teeth?

Entry Point

What are the different types of animals?

Lesson 1

How do animals get their nutrition?

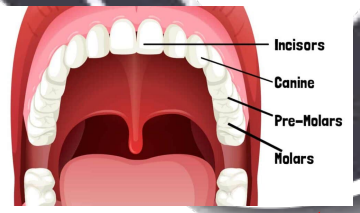


Lesson 1&2

Can I name the food groups and how they keep us healthy?

Lesson 3

What are the different types of teeth?



Lesson 4

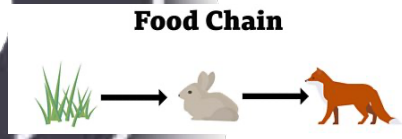
What are the functions of different teeth in humans?

Lesson 5

Can you compare herbivore and carnivore teeth?

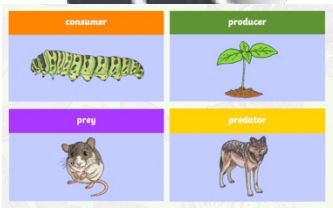
Lesson 6

What is a food chain and what does it show?



Lesson 7

Can I name some producers, predators and prey, drawing them on a food chain?



What enquiry types have I completed in this unit?

Exit Point

Why do animals have teeth?